

SAILING INSTRUCTIONS ADDENDUM

COURSE ILLUSTRATIONS

1. The symbol “+G” displayed on the course board after the numerical course designation signifies that a gate will be set at the leeward mark. Boats must pass through the gate marks from the direction of the previous mark, rounding the port gate mark to port or the starboard gate mark to starboard. In the event that a signaled gate is not set, boats are to round the existing Leeward Mark to Port.
2. The symbol “+O” displayed on the course board after the numerical course designation signifies that an offset mark is to be left to port in conjunction with the rounding of the weather mark.
